Chocolate Milk(DC)::Urban Substance(Bali)

Born and bred in Washington D.C., the sounds of “Chocolate City” have permeated LBS’ take on music from the very beginning. By the year 1994, LBS was in full swing with the already vibrant music scene that collided up and down the eastern seaboard of the U.S., from Boston to Miami there was no sound or club left unexplored. Legendary D.C. clubs such as “Tracks”, “Eighteenth Street Lounge”, “Red”, and the nomadic “Buzz” paved the way for what LBS’ sound is today.

After 1998, District Soul was formed by a few of his friends and were soon opening for and playing along such international stars as Mark Farina, DJ Sneak, Kaskade, 95 North, and DJ Gregory, which only further cemented his DJing experience through various sounds. Chocolate Milk was soon formed thereafter as a way to combine these sounds into a myriad of aural pleasures and gained popularity as the place to hear that underground vibe.

By the year 2006 it was time to move on and LBS packed his gear and headed for Asia. Searching for a new start and inspiration, he landed in Bali where he’s been currently residing ever since. Holding residencies and making guest appearances in Bali’s top clubs while playing sublime house sets, chilled rare grooves, or mashed up hip hop tunes... LBS will forever be hunting for the “perfect beat”...
